NEW PARTNERS IN KEYES FURNITURE

TWO NEW MEMBERS ARE TAKEN INTO PROMINENT LOCAL FIRM.

KEYES, AHRENS, OGDEN COMPANY

Old Established Firm Has Enjoyed a Healthy Growth and Outlook is for Even Greater Prosperity.

We are authorized to announce this evening the change in firm name and personnel of The Keyes Furniture & Carpet Rooms, which will from this date be conducted by the Keyes, Ahrens & Ogden Co. Evidence of progressive tendencies in Dixon retail business circles is substantially demonstrated in the above item of news from one of the largest and most reputable commercial houses.

This affords an opportunity to comment favorably on facts concerning the original establishment and the growth of a business that through the manner of its conduct has been a credit to our city, and no small factor in the development of Dixon as a commercial shopping center

Twenty years or more ago Mr. C. H. Keyes opened a furniture store in the room now occupied by Bradley & O'Malley on First street, where he continued until the business assumed such proportions that necessitated the enlargement of his rooms At this time his son, Charles, then a mere boy, was made a partner where under his father's direction he was given an opportunity to acquire practical experience which has so ably fitted him to share the added responsibilities that necessarily come wtih an increasing business.

Terminating another five years, negotiations were entered into for the erection of the large three floor building on the south side of First street, which they have since occupied. This move gave the Keyes Furniture & Carpet Rooms, as the business has since been known, three times the floor space previously occupied and enabled them to largely increase their furniture lines, and at this time was added a Carpet, Rug & Drapery department which has assumed large proportions and proven extremely popular with shoppers, but realizing that a continuously increasing business demands more personal attention, coupled with the possibilties of further expansion which may be accomplished with a strong and efficient organization, it was deemed expedient to work on a proposition that would make possible the accomplishment of this ambition, which has resulted in the formation of the new company.

In the organization of the new company Mr. Keyes Sr. will occupy a position of responsibility, acting in an advisory capacity, but enjoying more freedom from the store confinement, while Charles Keyes Jr., H. A. Ahrens and C. A. Ogden will devote all their time and energies to the development of the business.

Mr. Ahrens was brought up in an atmosphere of furniture retailing, his father having been engaged in the furniture business at Staunton, Ill., and as both Mr. Ahrens and Mr. Ogden have for some time been residents of Dixon and have seen years of service on the road as commercial salesmen, showing exceptional ability, and are gentlemen of wide experience and good business judgment they constitute a storng addition to the firm and we predict that this quartetette of gentlemen will become one of the most aggressive and substantial retail business organizations in northern Illinois.

The business policy originally adopted by Messrs. Keyes & Son, of carrying a stock adequate to the requirements of the community, extending courteous treatment and fair dealing that developed the extensive trade they enjoy, will be rigidly adhered to by the new firm.

A number of young ladies were badly frightened by the policeman last night.

DIXON WINS FROM POLO BY 20 TO 16

BASKETBALL GAME RESULTS IN VICTORY FOR LOCAL TEAM.

The Dixon Union high school basketball team defeated the Polo high school team at the south side school last evening by a score of 20 to 16. It was a good game and a large audience attended.

Dixon, however, was not up to its usual form and should have played a much better game. The absence of Julien at the start was one of Dixon's weak points.

Nevertheless the local boys played a swell game throughout. Ackert's work in playing running guard was a feature. Edward Haley, a sophomore, who took Julien's place, played a star game, but his work was not as effective as it would have been had he more weight. Drew put up a good game.

Loftus made 12 of Dixon's 20 points. Out of nine chances for free throws he made four. Drew made six points and Haley two.

For Polo, Middlekauf made six points, Wilson six and Miller four.

The Dixon lineup: Loftus, c; Lord and Ackert, rg and lg; Drew and Haley, rf and lf.

Polo lineup: Wales, c; Miller, lf; Middlekauf, rf; Wilson, rg; Copenhaver, lg.

The Polo boys played a good game. They showed that they had been coached to play on the defensive and they did so throughout.

The Dixon boys will soon issue a challenge to the Polo team for a game on a neutral floor—Sterling Y. M. C. A., for instance—to be refereed by a neutral official possibly from Chicago. Dixon has won once from Polo and lost one.

PUBLIC COURT TRIAL FEB. 17TH

PROMINENT CITIZEN CHARGED WITH LARCENY OF A VALUABLE ROOSTER.

For some time, it is alleged, one of our prominent citizens, Prof. W. R. Snyder, has been the happy possessor of a valuable Plymouth Rock rooster. He had no special qualities above roosters in general, except a degree of plumpness that has time and again excited the cupidity of epicures.

Some distance from the residence of the gentleman mentioned above, lives another well known citizen, Supervisor George Prescott, who has an unconquerable appetite for poultry.

One evening recently the rooster retired to his perch in the hen house as happy and contented as any rooster in Dixon.

The next morning he was missing. That day the gentleman with the longing for poultry had roast rooster for dinner. This may or may not be regarded as a suspicious circumstance, but there is other evidence that forms a connecting link between the hen house and his table.

The result is that he will be tried in public for the larceny of the fowl and his questionable attitude toward roosters in general will be given an airing in the near future.

The parties in the case are so prominent that it is feared no court room will hold the crowd desirous of attending the trial, so it will be held in Dixon opera house on Monday evening, Feb. 17, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., for whose benefit the proceeds will be devoted.

In other word it will be a mock court trial, in which a number of our most prominent and popular citizens will participate.

The committee having the affair in charge has engaged Col. A. V. Newton of Worcester, Mass., the veteran manager of these entertainments, to attend the details and personally conduct the trial.

Col. Newton has had remarkable success in the leading cities of the country and without doubt the mock court will be here, as elsewhere, one of the most pleasing and successful entertainment evens of many seasons.

TO RAISE LOAN FUND FOR THE STATE BLIND

LOCAL MEMBERS OF STATE ASSOCIATION FOR BLIND ARE MUCH INTERESTED.

SPEAKS OF ARTHUR JEWELL

Deceased Member of Committee to Control Fund Had Visited Dixon Many Times.

Jacob Egler of this city submits an article issued by the Alumni Association for the Illinois School for the Blind, of which both Mr. and Mrs. Egler are members, and which has special local interest, as it speaks of the death of Arthur Jewell of Jacksonville, who was a personal friend of Mr. Egler's and who visited the latter at his home in Dixon every summer for upwards of twenty years. Mr. Jewell's widow, Mrs. Alice Jewell is at present visiting at the Egler home on West Second street, Dixon. The article, which all Illinois newspapers are requested to publish to aid in furthering the good cause, follows:

At a regular meeting of the Alumni Association of the Illinois School for the Blind, held at Jacksonville on June 6, 1912, it was proposed that an effort be made to raise a trust fund from which loans might be made to deserving blind persons, for the purpose of enabling them to purchase tools and materials, or otherwise to assist them in becoming established in some occupation which would help to render them self-sustaining. A committee composed of Miss Lillian A. Smith of Jacksonville, Arthur Jewell of Jacksonville, Miss Helene Tiedemann of O'Fallon, J. E. Reynolds of Camp Point and E. J. Nolan of Chicago was appointed to secure subscriptions and to have full management and control of the fund and a little more than $100 was at once pledged by those members who were present. The greatly deplored death of Arthur Jewell on Dec. 7th, last, leaves a vacancy on the committee which has not yet been filled. All who are at all familiar with the education of the blind, know that many of our people are delayed, discouraged, and oftentimes prove failures, simply for want of a little financial assistance in the beginning, to enable them to get a start. It is unnecessary, therefore, to say anything further than to merely state the purpose of the fund, and that its benefits are not to be restricted to members of this association.

We, therefore, respectfully urge and request all blind persons and friends of the blind, to subscribe such sums as they feel they can afford, and to solicit subscriptions from such other persons as they may be able to interest in the cause. We are not asking those who have already contributed to subscribe further at this time, but we are sending this to all, to urge them to help interest the public, and to request that contributions be sent in as soon as possible.

Please send subscriptions to E. J. Nolan, 4557 Dover St., Chicago, Ill. Those who may wish to secure a loan from the fund are requested to apply to the same address.

Respectfully yours,
Lillian A. Smith, Chairman,
Helene Tiedemann,
J. E. Reynolds,
E. J. Nolan,
Committee.

"All is Well That Ends Well"

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness, sleeplessness and general ill health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be assimilated and carried to the blood. On the other hand, the blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion. In turn, the nerves are not fed on good, red blood and we see those symptoms of nervous breakdown. It is not head work that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip—bronchitis—consumption. Fortify the body now with

What Dr. R. S. Piper Does

He treats all Chronic diseases of MAN or WOMAN that are curable, no matter how long standing. He fits GLASSES to the EYES accurately by an entirely new method known only to himself; he does not blind you for a week by putting drops in your eye. He invites the most difficult cases to call on him and try his new method FREE OF CHARGE. He also removes WARTS AND MOLES from any part of the body by a wonderful and painless method that leaves no scar.

He Wants the Worst Cases

—the so-called incurable cases—the hopeless (?) cases in order to prove what his successful treatment will do. Ninety-nine per cent of his cures are performed in cases which have been pronounced incurable, and who have tried so many other treatments and taken so much medicine that they have become completely discouraged. These have come to Dr. R. S. Piper and have found health and happiness. Why not let him cure you?

Many of you who have been taking medicine and so-called treatments for months will be absolutely cured in a few days. Very chronic cases will require somewhat longer time, but it will make no difference; you will be treated free, remedies excepted, until you say, 'I am cured.'

Diseases of Men

There are no diseases so destructive to the health, happiness and prosperity of man as Lost Vitality, Blood Poison, Syphilis, Stricture, Varicocele, Drains, Losses, Discharges, Urinary Troubles and other diseases from which men alone suffer. Such diseases rarely cause death, but they produce a condition of mental and bodily suffering that is worse than death. There are no diseases about which physicians in general know so little and treat so carelessly.

Because the subject is so delicate—and frequently so disagreeable—competent physicians are loath to handle it, and the same delicacy on the part of many patients causes their treatment to be neglected. Therefore do not neglect yourself by reason of false modesty. These affections are as legitimate a branch of medicine as diseases of the Heart, Lungs or Stomach. Seek proper means of relief at once, for neglect is fatal.

Diseases of Women

Dr. Piper's system of treatment saves suffering women from dangerous surgical operations. It has proved efficient, reliable and successful in all manner of diseases of women. It has cured the most severe cases of Inflammation and Congestion of the Womb, Inflammation and Congestion of the Ovaries, Leuchorrhoea, Backache, Ulceration, Falling of the Womb, Irregular, Profuse, Painful Menstruation, etc. The remarkable success of the modern, painless treatment is attested to by scores and hundreds of cured patients while its value has been indorsed by some of the most prominent medical writers in the country.

All Diseases

All curable afflictions can be cured by Dr. Piper's treatment—many that others consider incurable—no matter how many remedies you have vainly tried—no matter how many other doctors have failed. CURING DESPERATE CHRONIC CASES is Dr. Piper's specialty. ARE YOU SUFFERING from belching of gas or food from the stomach, pain or distress in the stomach, breaking out on the skin, constipation, creepy or numb sensations in the limbs, the effects of an old time illness, despondency, melancholia, loss of ambition, loss of vital energy, wasting diseases, deep seated blood diseases, epilepsy, fits, asthma, eczema, gall bladder trouble, varicocele, early abuses, headaches, pain in the back or the side, dizziness, rheumatism, acute infections, auto-intoxication, nervous prostration, locomotor ataxia, dyspepsia, biliousness, heart disease, kidney and bladder disease, lung trouble, catarrh of the head, diseased eyes, reduced vision, female diseases, nervous exhaustion, or any evidence of breaking down in MAN or WOMAN?

Thousands have been cured in the past—many just like your case. Won't you let him cure you? A friendly call may save you much suffering; it has made life anew to thousands who had been pronounced beyond help.

An eastern doctor says that he can cure a broken leg in four days, but he fails to say a word about a leg that has been pulled.

Ladies who have trouble tightening their corset strings might try the following plan, proposed by a Dixon man who has had his troubles at home: Tie the strings firmly to the leg of the bed and then jump out of the window, having first put the corset on, of course. By this means one can get a beautiful wasp-like waste that is hard to see but charming to look upon.

And ladies who are bothered because their hair is coming out should keep it in a paper sack and then have a switch made of it By following the above plan they will always be able to say truthfully that their hair is all their own.

NO BILIOUSNESS, HEADACHE, SICK, SOUR, STOMACH, INDIGESTION, COATED TONGUE, OR CONSTIPATIO

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. U.S. WARSHIPS TO CENTRAL AMERICA

Reported That Many Rebellions Are Brewing in Southern Capitals.

STATE DEPARTMENT IS ALERT

Believed That Old Zelayist Faction Is at Work in Nicaragua and Defeated Factions in All Republics Plan Civil Wars.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Secret reports to the navy department and the state department from all the Central American capitals except that of Costa Rica tell of plans for a half dozen rebellions. The navy department took immediate steps to guard American lives and property by rushing orders to four warships to proceed first to ports in Nicaragua and Honduras. The theory of the state department is that the unrest of all the revolutionary parties in South America will break into rebellion at the opening of the new administration at Washington in the hope that its foreign policy may be different from the present administration.

State Department Alert.

The state department is therefore taking measures not only through the navy department, but through the treasury department, which will watch the port of New Orleans, where the officials here have reason to believe there are juntas of several of the Central American republics actively engaged in preparing for the usual filibustering expeditions, the purchase of steamers and the preparation of plans to evade the customs officers.

Four Ships Ordered South.

The vessels ordered to the scene of prospective action are:

The Annapolis, which is now at San Diego, Cal. She will proceed to Amapala, Honduras. There are large American interests there and especially a railroad, which is chiefly owned by New York capitalists.

The Denver, which has been doing protective duty at Acapulco, Mex., will go to Acajutla, Honduras coast.

The Des Moines will go from Guantanamo to Bluefields, Eastern Nicaraguan coast. This is a famous revolutionary center and is watched always by Great Britain, which usually sends a warship there when the United States takes action, as in the present case.

Search for Filibusters.

The Nashville, now at New Orleans, will primarily look out for any filibusters now afloat and will then go to the coast of Nicaragua and Honduras, especially to Puerto Cortes or Puerto Barrios.

It is believed at the state department that the old Zelayist faction is at work in Nicaragua and that the factions in all the republics except Costa Rica, which have been beaten in the last four years, will start civil wars wherever possible.

QUIZ FOR WICKERSHAM

Attorney General Received the House Resolution.

His Authority for Holding Up the Warrants for Archbold's Arrest Is Asked.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Attorney General Wickersham received a resolution passed by the house of representatives asking on what authority the warrants for the arrest of President John D. Archbold and Directors Teagle and Folger, of the Standard Oil company, were being held up.

No official statement concerning the nature of the answer that will be made by the attorney general could be obtained. It is known, however, the contention will be made that the Texas authorities had insufficient evidence upon which to base the indictments against the Standard Oil men.

The attitude of the department of justice is in direct conflict with opinions rendered by federal judges in Texas and Representative Garner, who fathered the resolution calling for an explanation, says both sides to the controversy will be given an opportunity to be heard.

NO VERDICT IN FRAUD CASE

Jury Deliberates 24 Hours Without Result—Must Try Again.

New York, Feb. 8.—After they had deliberated more than twenty-four hours without being able to agree on a verdict the jury which has heard the federal government's case against A. L. Myers, mine promoters, accused of using the mails to defraud, was ordered locked up again by Judge Mack, who said the case was too important for a mistrial if a verdict was remotely possible.

REFUGEES DROWN WHEN SHIPS SINK

Residents of Gallipoli Fleeing Before Advance of Bulgarian Troops.

12,000 TURKS LOST IN FIGHT

Greek Army Aviator, Captain Maraitmis Flies Over the Straits of the Dardanelles in a Hydroplane—Drops Three Bombs on Enemy.

London, Feb. 8.—According to a dispatch from Constantinople the residents of Gallipoli are fleeing panic-stricken before the advance of the Bulgarian troops. This dispatch states that hundreds of refugees were drowned when the overcrowded transports on which they were fleeing were overturned.

It is reported from Sofia that certain powers are trying to influence Turkey to surrender Adrianople, while a Constantinople rumor has it that Turkey contemplates opening peace negotiations direct with the allies.

According to a dispatch from Sofia, the Bulgarians have checked every attempt of the Turks to advance in Gallipoli. The Bulgarians routed the retreating Ottoman troops, inflicting losses of 12,000 killed and wounded.

Fighting at Gallipoli Continues.

Fighting continued between the Turks and the allies at Gallipoli and the Bulgarians renewed their efforts to take Adrianople. Official dispatches from Sofia emphatically deny the reports emanating from Constantinople to the effect that the Turkish fleet has inflicted heavy losses on the Bulgarian forces at Gallipoli and that the Bulgars have met reverses at Tchataljа.

Aviator's Daring Feat.

The most daring feat of the war was performed by Captain Maraitmis, a Greek army aviator, who flew over the straits of the Dardanelles in a hydroplane and dropped three bombs into the arsenal at Maides, near the southern point of the Gallipoli peninsula.

The aviator first flew over the Turkish fleet and looking down saw red bursts of flame, indicating that the vessel's guns were firing at him. Captain Maraitmis said he made valuable observations of the Turkish fortifications.

Porte Issues Statement.

A statement issued by the porte says:

"The enemy continues movements along the Tchataljа lines. Several encounters have occurred in the course of these operations, all of them ending in the retirement of the enemy. An engagement near Palaia developed into a somewhat severe battle. The warship Irilalies bombarded the enemy from Biyuk Chekmedje on the Sea of Marmora.

"The bombardment of Adrianople continues night and day, but the damage is unimportant. The courage and vigor of the Turkish troops is admirable.

"The enemy has occupied and is fortifying and entrenching the heights south of Xamilo, in the vicinity of Gallipoli, but has been subjected to an artillery fire from the Turkish army and fleet."

POLICE AGAIN SHAKEN

District Attorney Whitman Springs New Testimony.

"Jimmy" Purcell, a Gambler and Former Partner of Rosenthal's, Makes Further Confessions.

New York, Feb. 8.—The New York police department, already panic-stricken through the graft confessions of Captain Walsh and Policeman Fox, was shaken again by a new surprise when District Attorney Whitman brought "Jimmy" Purcell, a gambler and former partner of Herman Rosenthal, before the Curran aldermanic investigating committee and drew from him a confession making direct charges against Captains Thomas, John Delaney, Martens, Burns and Corcoran and Gannon, and Policemen Murphy, Cahill, Walsh, Quinlan, Graham and Carroll, and several ward men.

Whitman has had Purcell under cover ever since the Becker trial, when the gambler was ready to testify for the district attorney in case evidence was needed to convince the jury that Becker was a vice grafter. All of Purcell's story had been carefully worked out and corroborated. Weeks of preparation have been spent upon it, so as to leave the accused police no loophole.

In addition to his payments to the New York police officers named, Purcell declared he paid protection money to Sheriff Harvey of Queens county when he opened a poolroom in Long Island City.

NEW CENSUS SCHEME

Director Durand Wants Mail Carriers to Gather Data.

Official Recommends This in His Annual Report—Expense of Thirteenth Count.

Washington, Feb. 8.—E. Dana Durand, director of the census, thinks the government would save money and get better results if the mail carriers were used to gather the census statistics, and he recommends that this be done, in his annual report submitted today. He points out that the plan is especially feasible in respect to rural mail carriers. He says the chief objection to the present system is that the supervisors and enumerators are almost entirely inexperienced in the work.

Regarding the cost of the thirteenth decennial census, the report states that the grand total of expenditures from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1912, was $15,171,593, of which $7,223,585 was for field work; $6,271,446 for compilation and publication of statistics, and $1,676,762 for annual and other investigations of the permanent bureau of census not connected with the decennial census.

DRAMATIC NOTES

THOS W. ROSS IN 'THE ONLY SON'

Probability and plausibility are the two points which make for success in 'The Only Son,' the new play by Winchell Smith, author of the 'Fortune Hunter' and 'Brewster's Millions.' In 'The Only Son' Mr. Smith has written a play with a 'punch' and with all the other things that plays nowadays are supposed to have. In short, it is the simple story of a young man who stuck to his mother.

In the Brainard family Mr. Smith has created a group that one would not have to travel many blocks to find. The father and mother began life together with little or nothing, and great wealth had come to them. Absorbed in business the father leaves the family to themselves, and the mother, youthful and pretty falls into the silly, idle, flirtatious habits of the other women of her circle. There is a love theme interest in the play. The son is in love with a girl artist but it the devotion of the boy to his mother that makes the play. It will be at the Opera House for one night only, Wednesday, Feb. 12th.

HENRY RUSHES THE SEASAN

If Henry Lebowich has anything to do with the weather, spring and summer will soon 'be in our midst,' for he is alleged to have appeared today wearing a new Panama straw hat. Henry denies that he mistook a sparrow for a robin, which mistake is said by his friends to have caused him to believe summer was here.

Shows Work of Flipinos.

Miss Frances McGee, a supervisor of schools in the Philippines, is responsible for the collection of laces and embroideries which is being exhibited at Teachers' college, New York. All the lace and embroidery is done by Filipinos, boys and girls, in the public schools of the islands. It is planned by the school authorities to teach these young workers such patterns and stitches as will make their work more marketable. The abaka lace and other of the coarser laces seen in the exhibition are made by boys and girls in third and fourth grades of the school. In the upper grades the boys turn their talents to the making of furniture and to agriculture. These Philippine schools are entirely self-supporting, and according to the latest report of the bureau of education, the number of American teachers is constantly decreasing, their positions being filled by native students as they are graduated by the normal school.

TORTURE FOR WEALTH

Rubber Field Horrors Shown in Report to Taft.

Men With Rifles Are Sent Into the Jungle to Enslave and Abuse Indians.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A twentieth century story of Anglo-Saxon exploitation of South American Indians, rivaling as a narrative of heartless cruelty tales which have come down from the old Spanish captains, was laid bare here in a special state department report which President Taft transmitted to congress. The present day victims of a medieval system of barbarous oppression are the Indian tribes of the Putumayo district in Peru.

Little hope for the relief of the long suffering Indians is held out in the report, for the Putumayo region is remote from the seat of Peruvian government and Stuart J. Fuller, American consul at Iquitos, Peru, who made the investigation, finds that the travesty on justice which exists in the rubber section is entirely in the hands of the rubber company's section chiefs.

Sir Roger Casement, British consul general at Rio de Janeiro, who investigated the situation in 1910, made disclosures that influenced the state department to order the investigation on which Consul Fuller now reports.

Sir Roger found that among other things the Peruvian Amazon company imported 20 Barbados men, who upon their arrival in the rubber district were armed with rifles and sent into the jungle to capture and enslave Indians dwelling along the upper Amazon tributaries. The British consul found that in the exercise of this illegal compulsion the Indians were murdered, flogged and otherwise tortured.

Wireless and Aurora.

The aurora borealis, or northern lights, apparently affects the wireless telegraph waves that pass between Hammerfest, Norway, and the northernmost station in the world at Green Harbor, Spitsbergen. Often the polar light so weakens the wireless waves that the operator in the receiving-station at Spitsbergen can hardly hear them, and at times communication is wholly interrupted. On the other hand, the appearance of the northern lights seems to strengthen the waves that are sent southward. Once, when the aurora was so bright in Spitsbergen that it was mentioned in a dispatch to Norway, the receiving operator at Hammerfest, when the polar light was not visible, noticed an extraordinary increase in the volume and distinctness of the signals.

Have Catalogue of Stars.

At Cambridge, Mass., there now exists the most extensive and valuable collection of stellar photographs in the world, numbering over 240,000; and 100,000 or more of them have been secured at Harvard University Observatory at Arequipa, Peru, at an elevation of 8,000 feet. The number of stars revealed on the different plates depends, of course, on the density of the part of the sky being photographed, and on the length of the exposure, the longer the exposure the more stars, provided the light of the sky does not fog the plate. On one plate alone, namely the region about Eta Carinae, 240,000 stars have been actually counted.

TOOK RISK AND LOST

WHEN FORTUNE WAS UNKIND TO BLOCKADE RUNNER.

Consignment of Buttons for Confederate Navy Made Cargo of Captured Ship Contraband, and English Merchant Failed.

Wonderful stories are told about blockade runners and blockade running, the dangers, the losses and prizes of this feature of the game of war, but there is a man in New York who relates a story of this sort that is remarkable.

Near the close of the Civil war, when he was quite a young man, he wandered into a place on Nassau street and looked on while the cargo of a captured blockade runner was being sold at auction. The goods offered at such sales rarely brought much, and this occasion was no exception. One of the chief articles put up at auction was a big consignment of brass buttons on which the raised letters "C. S. N." appeared prominently. They were buttons apparently intended for the navy of the Confederate states. The young man picked up one of the buttons and, after examining it, put it into his pocket as a pocket piece. On the under side of the button the name "Campbell, Isaacs & Co." appeared as the manufacturers.

The young man had this pocket piece with him when he went abroad some time later. In London he paid a visit to a gentleman named Hart, a friend of his family, and was a guest at dinner. After dinner, while chatting with his host, he happened to take the button out of his pocket. Mr Hart asked if he might be permitted to take a look at it. He gave a start of amazement as he turned it over and read the name of "Campbell, Isaacs & Co." Then he asked the young man where he got the button and how. The young man explained.

"That button cost me £60,000—$300,000," remarked Mr. Hart. Then Mr. Hart said he was a silent partner in the firm of Campbell, Isaacs & Co. The Confederate navy was in need of brass buttons and this firm got the order. The firm rushed the work on the order, intending to ship by the fastest of all the blockade runners—a vessel in which Mr. Hart, who did quite a business in this line, had a decided interest. There was some delay and the vessel sailed without the buttons. She had not proceeded far when they arrived. By the most strenuous efforts the blockade runner was recalled and the consignment was put aboard. Then she started once more for America.

All went well until the blockade runner was close to the Carolina coast, whither she was bound. Then she began playing her usual game and with her usual confidence. The captain and the crew knew she was faster than any of the Federal boats patrolling the coast. She had shown her heels to them before. But while the blockade runner had been away on her last voyage the Federal government had put into commission a faster, better equipped vessel than ever had been on patrol duty before. The blockade runner was captured and she and her cargo confiscated. The English owners sent a representative to Washington and tried to convince the authorities that the initials "C. S. N." on the buttons meant "Coast Service, Nassau." They were unsuccessful. The buttons were the only contraband of war in the blockade runner's cargo. Their presence there made everything else in the cargo contraband and subject to seizure.

Mr. Hart had reason to think he was in hard luck. If the blockade runner had not been called back to get the buttons all would have been well, and if she had encountered any other patrol boat than the one she did she could have escaped capture. But by a strange coincidence the fastest blockade runner and the fastest patrol vessel came together and Mr. Hart of London was out £60,000.

Girl Loved to Wander.

Adele Kretchmer, a seventeen-year-old girl, in whom the wanderlust is so strong that she has become known as the "girl tramp," was brought up before Judge Wilbur in juvenile court one day recently.

She has been traveling all over southern California the last six months. She told the court that she much preferred sleeping in a barn to anywhere else and that the atmosphere of a house was stifling to her. According to the officers of the various institutions in which she has been placed from time to time, the girl is not bad, but simply loves nature and the great outdoors.

"Oh, dear me, I know how to be a woman, but I just can't be one, and I doubt if I ever shall be one," Adele said to the matron of the San Bernardino home, according to a letter in the records of the case.—Los Angeles Herald.

Woman Wins Prized Honor.

Miss Marie Gertrude Rand of Brooklyn, N. Y., has just been awarded the Sarah Berliner research fellowship for women, the most valuable prize open to women students of science. This fellowship has a value of $1,000, and was awarded Miss Rand on account of her investigations of the psychology of vision, which reversed accepted theories on the subject. Miss Rand has been a special graduate student in Bryn Mawr for the past four years.

Mrs. Grundy.

"What will Mrs. Grundy say?" This query occurs in an old play called "Speed the Plough." The author of it was one Thomas Morton, a forgotten playwright. First acted in 1798—the year of the Battle of the Nile, and the Irish Rebellion—this play had then a "run" of forty-one nights and subsequently it was much revived. A farmer's wife in the play, Mrs. Ashfield by name, insistently refers to her rival, the wife of a neighboring farmer, whom she calls Mrs. Grundy. This second woman does not appear on the stage. It is the ruling passion with Mrs. Ashfield to have everything superior to what Mrs. Grundy may possess. In the keenness of feminine rivalry Mrs. Ashfield is controlled in all her investments in personal apparel, when selecting her new gown, her bonnet, her jewelry, in all she does, indeed, by the determination to "spite" her rival as expressed in the exclamation, "What will Mrs. Grundy say?" From Morton's "Speed the Plough" came to us the invisible yet ubiquitous Mrs. Grundy. By a curious transfer of symbolism, however, Mrs. Grundy passed with time into a concrete and personal equivalent for the public opinion which supports the proprieties, the respectabilities.

Tourists in Ireland.

The world is always willing to give every renaissance a chance, and we have ours now. Are we going to take it? This matter of tourist organization may seem, at first sight, to be a small one. But our attitude towards it will be regarded, and rightly regarded as a sign of our whole attitude towards the things that the modern world of business considers most important. If we take no pains at all to preserve and garner the golden harvest which is open to us in the tourist traffic, we shall be set down as hopelessly incompentent in practical affairs. If our visitors are bored or cheated, if they are allowed to go away in ignorance of the best views, the finest scenery, if they do not find the facilities that they have a right to expect, the damning rumor will spread abroad that Ireland is "pretty, of course, but so dirty and uncomfortable." Not only will our tourist stream dry up, but every Irish product, from lace to butter, will have to fight against that vague, intangible prejudice against Irish goods and Irish methods as being dirty and unbusinesslike.—Weekly Irish Times.

Truely Appropriate.

The organist was not lacking in patriotism, says the New York Sun, yet he rebelled when requested to play "The Star Spangled Banner," at a wedding. "It is not appropriate," he said. "Ain't it," said the bride's father. "For this wedding it is the most appropriate thing you can play. Cut all the rest of the program if you like, but stick to that. I had the hardest kind of a fight to keep Belle's mother from marrying her off to a foreigner. Between Belle and me we won out for an American, and if this isn't the time for 'The Star Spangled Banner,' I'd like to know what is."

Chas. Willey and Frank Kruesi came out from Chicago last night.

Dr. Baird returned from Chicago last evening.

John Valle will go to Chicago this evening.

BURNED AND ITCHED BADLY

Burn Was Sore and Ulcerated. All Red and Inflamed. Suffered Terribly. Could Not Sleep for Two Weeks. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Arm Healed Nicely.

539 Lincoln Park Blvd., Chicago, Ill.—"A year ago I received a very severe burn on my left arm. I caught cold in it and it was all sore and ulcerated. The sore was as large as a silver dollar. It was all red and inflamed and had pus running out of it. I suffered terribly from burning pain; could not sleep for two weeks it burned and itched so badly. I applied —— Salve, —— Salve and a salve my druggist recommended as his own, but got no relief. I then commenced using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bathed the burned parts with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment on a linen bandage. I got relief from the first and my arm healed nicely. I was soon able to be at work again. Had I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment at first I would have avoided lots of suffering." (Signed) Harry Junke, Mar. 9, 1912.

If you wish a skin clear of pimples, blackheads and other annoying eruptions, hands soft and white, hair live and glossy, and scalp free from dandruff and itching, begin to-day the regular use of Cuticura Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, assisted by an occasional light application of Cuticura Ointment. ORATORY SOCIETY TO GIVE PLAY TUESDAY NIGHT

Those who were fortunate enough to see 'How the Colonel Proposed' given by the oratory department of Dixon college at college chapel under the direction of Mrs. Burnham, dean of the department, are glad to know she is directing another play to be given Tuesday evening, Feb. 11, at the college. It is entitled 'All Charlie's Fault' and is said to be as amusing as the former play and will bring forward a number of new actors.

GRASS FIRE

The fire department was called to East Fellows street this afternoon to extinguish a grass fire along the river bank. The person who turned in the alarm did not specify that the blaze was a grass fire and as a result extra water pressure was put on that rolled the city water all over the city. Chief Coffey again requests that when alarms for grass fires are turned in that the department be notified of the nature of the blaze.

ROCKEFELLER IN SHADOW OF DEATH

Oil Magnate Collapses Twelve Minutes After Untermyer Starts Quiz.

FORCED TO ABANDON HEARING

Chairman of Committee Issues Statement in Which He Declares Financier's Condition Is Pitiable—Had to Whisper Answers.

Jekyl Island, Ga., Feb. 8.—The shadow of death came between William Rockefeller and the Pujo money trust investigators.

Face to face with the oil magnate, brother of John D. Rockefeller, after a pursuit which lasted over a year, Chairman Pujo and Samuel Untermyer, counsel to the committee, were compelled to abandon a victory which was in their grasp through the very grave danger that the long sought witness might die under the pressure of cross-examination.

Submitting to the jurisdiction of the committee Mr. Rockefeller received Chairman Pujo and Mr. Untermyer in the library of his apartments here. He was practically voiceless. With Doctor Chappell at his side, however, the examination was begun after the man who is declared to be richer even than his famous brother had lifted a palsied hand to subscribe to the oath.

Rockefeller in Collapse.

But twelve minutes elapsed. Mr. Untermyer had been able to ask but a single question germane to the investigation when the witness was attacked by a violent fit of coughing. His whole frame trembled; he became absolutely speechless. The blood rushed to his face, which turned purple and crimson. To all who looked on it seemed evident that a crisis was at hand. Doctor Chappell hastily administered an opiate, under which Mr. Rockefeller partially revived, but before the examination could be resumed the doctor interposed:

"I strongly urge you not to proceed," he said, "as in doing so you are endangering his life at the present moment."

Chairman Pujo and Mr. Untermyer exchanged hasty glances. By this time Mr. Rockefeller had fallen back into his chair in a state of almost complete collapse. Doctor Chappell was sworn and amid deep silence, while every eye was riveted upon the witness patient, he solemnly swore that a continuation of the examination which had brought Mr. Rockefeller to a verge of a spasm of the larynx might choke him to death.

Examination Is Terminated.

The patient was appealed to and whispering feebly into the ear of the official stenographer he declared that he felt in such a condition that he thought it unsafe to proceed further. It was the end. Chairman Pujo declared the examination terminated. Whatever information William Rockefeller could have imparted will remain sealed in his own mind. The copper deal will lie buried in the unsavory past. It is not too much to say that even William Rockefeller has passed from the field of active life. He is seventy-two years old.

In the circumstances Chairman Pujo and Mr. Untermyer do not believe that they would be justified in pressing Mr. Rockefeller any further. Mr. Pujo said that the testimony which could have been secured from the witness was largely of a cumulative character and since the jurisdiction and authority of his committee and incidentally of the congress of the United States had been recognized the chief end of the pursuit of Mr. Rockefeller had been achieved.

Pujo Issues Statement.

Following the dramatic termination of the examination, which also ends the taking of testimony in the money trust inquiry, Chairman Pujo issued the following official statement:

"Mr. Rockefeller's condition is simply pitiable. He not only shakes like a leaf all over his body, but after the first question he began to cough convulsively and it was evident he was laboring under great excitement and that he was on the verge of collapse. He had to slowly whisper the few words he spoke into the ear of the stenographer, who sat beside him. This he did with the greatest difficulty.

"Such a thing as an examination would be impossible. As soon as Doctor Chappell intervened and requested that the hearing proceed no further on the ground stated by him, Mr. Untermyer felt that it would be dangerous and inhuman to go further and I thereupon ordered the suspension of the examination."

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

WHAT A HEAP OF HAPPINESS IT WOULD BRING TO DIXON HOMES

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings your hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that

Backache pains often come from weak kidneys.

Would save much needless woe.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys,

Read what a Dixon citizen says:

Mrs George Engel, 84 Lincoln Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: 'Dona's Kidney Pills have done me more good than any other remedy I ever used. I got this preparation at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug store and after taking it, I no longer had pains in my back and my kidneys did not trouble me. I shall alwsy recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.'

'When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name.' Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Engel had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

ONE KILLED; FOUR HURT

Young Women Student in Bad Coasting Accident.

Miss Elsie B. Fall of Indianapolis Dies From Injuries—Oxford (O.) College Tragedy Is Appalling.

Oxford, Ohio, Feb. 8.—One young woman was killed and four others were more or less seriously injured here in a coasting accident which occurred on Main street hill.

All were students of Oxford college for women. Elsie B. Fall, twenty years of age, a senior, daughter of Henry W. Fall of Indianapolis, died from internal injuries a few moments after the accident.

Gertrude Barcus, twenty, senior, of Crawfordsville, Ind., suffered laceration of the ligaments of her ankle, Margaret Roberts, eighteen, freshman, of Louisville, Ky., slight concussion of the brain, Eva Dussell, twenty-one, senior, of Elmhurst, Ill., contusions on the head and face cut, Sarah L. Hanford, twenty, senior, of Kankakee, Ill., hip injured.

There were 15 young women in the coasting party, and Miss Barcus was guiding with her feet. They were coasting on the sidewalk, which rendered the sport more hazardous than in the highway. On the third trip down, Miss Barcus lost control of the sled and it crashed into a telephone pole. Miss Fall was rendered unconscious and died in that state a few minutes after the arrival of physicians.

FIRE IN U. S. STRUCTURE

Flames in Laboratory B of Agricultural Department Cause $1,000 Loss.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Fire was discovered at 2:15 o'clock this morning in Laboratory B., of the department of agriculture. There was no chance of the blaze spreading to adjoining buildings as the firemen had it confined to one building. Large quantities of seeds and old furniture were destroyed, but it is not believed any government records were lost. The damage is estimated to be not more than $1,000.

Nature Student.

"The bat, when winter comes," said a nature student, "folds his long ears against his sides, shuts off his heart, and, hanging head down from some black corner of barn or smoke house, hibernates till spring. In March he begins to wake up.

"Lizards and snakes hibernate underground. Frogs hibernate in the frozen mud at the bottom of their ponds. It's nothing to them that they freeze stiff. A frog so stiff frozen in February that you could break him like a soda cracker will thaw out in a warm March as chipper as you please.

"Rats and mice don't hibernate. They come indoors. They leave their cold fields and sewers, and they take up their quarters in our nice, warm, steam heated houses. There it's jolly—plenty to eat, no snow, no sleet, no piercing March winds. The winter season makes no difference to the rats and mice, save that, while always marrying and giving in marriage, they marry and give in marriage more than ever in our comfortable houses, rearing, at our expense and on our food, litters that in their vast numbers would content even a rat Roosevelt."

Wm. Mitchell, who is preparing for the bar examination, is dining with the elite of society at the Belle Claire cafe.
